AN ORDINANCE FOR Paſsing Cuſtodies OF Idiots and Lunaticks.

WHereas by an Act of the late Parlament on the behalf of Idiots and Lunaticks, it was, among other things, enacted, That the Bus for paſſing of the Cuſtodies of the ſaid Idiots and Lunaticks, ſhould bee ſigned by the Council of State before the Commissioners of the Great Seal of England should pass the same under the said Seal; And whereas that Council is since dissolved, Bee it Ordeined by his Highness the Lord PROTECTOR, by and with the advice and consent of his Council, That the Chancellor, Keeper, or Commissioners of the Great Seal for the time being, do not pass the said Custodies under the Great Seal, before the same bee signed by his Highness the Lord PROTECTOR, and that the same so signed by his Highness, shall bee a sufficient warrant for passing the same under the said Great Seal, any Law, Statute, Act, Ordinance or Custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Monday 20th March, 1653.

Ordered by his Highness the Lord PROTECTOR and the COUNCIL, that this Ordinance bee forthwith printed and published.

Hen. Scobell, Clerk of the Council.
